

What is it...

Young Women's Leadership program is a two-semester after-school, curriculum based mentoring program that pairs junior high girls with college women, and focuses on issues facing adolescent girls.

Thank you for reading!

Young Women's Leadership Program

For more information email akb0024@auburn.edu
or visit
<https://cws.auburn.edu/wrc/cm/YWLP>

Our goal...

>Develop leadership skills for big and little sister

>Empower junior-high aged girls through weekly one-on-one mentoring and targeted small group activities

>Develop meaningful relationships

Big Sisters...

Auburn University female undergraduate students from all majors, selected through an application and interview process

The commitment...

The program is a one-year/two-semester minimum commitment. Mentors will receive five hours of course credit for their participation.

Class: Mondays 3–4 p.m. (fall semester)

Practicum: Monday 4–5 p.m. (all year)

On Site Meeting: Every Tuesday 3:30–5 p.m.

One-on-one time with with little sister: 1 hour weekly, when is up to you

Little Sisters...

Junior-high aged girls (8th and 9th grade) of Auburn Junior High School, nominated by School Counselors

